Democratic and Conservative

Convention Platform.

The Democratic and Conservative party of the State of Alabama, in entering upon the contest for the redemption of the State Government from the Radical usurpers who now control it, adopt and declare as their

platform—

1. That we stand ready to obey the constitution of the United States and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, and the constitution and the laws of the State of Alabama, so long as they remain in force and unrepugnant to the principles of justice and equity.

2. That we are opposed to the unjust, extravagant and unnecessary taxation, both State and Federal, and with which our people are now oppressed, to the wasteful and unproductive expenditure of the public money and public credit, and we are in favor of the strictest economy in public expenditures, and of a rigid and prompt accountability of all public officers.

3. That we are in favor of law and order; fair and peaceful elections, free from fraud and corruption; and that we shall demand a fair count of the ballots cast.

4. That we are in favor of confiding the government of the State to our own people, to men of known capacity and integrity, who accept office for the general good and do not seek office for public plunder.

5. That the party now in control of this State have obtained power by usurpation, against the will of the people, and they have created unnecessary and useless offices for the sole purpose of feeding their followers, they have by profligate extravagance and corruption, increased the debt of the State many millions of dollars, and have refused to execute the provisions of their own constitution relating to the classification of State Senators and their tenure of office; and by numerous other enormities in legislation they have shown themselves unfit to govern the people of a free State, and they ought to be ejected, through the ballot box, from the offices they hold in defiance of the wishes and in contempt of the interests of the people.

A Horse of Another Color.

We wish to call the attention of the colored men of Calhoun to a fact that they probably have not considered, and we wish our subscribers to read this article to them and thus bring it to their attention. It is this:

After all the voting they have done for the Radical party, thus putting white

What Was the Reason?

MR. EDITOR:

We desire to know from the delegates, or from any of the Radicals, why the negroes from Calhoun were not allowed seats in the Convention?

They were nominated in a regular convention in Calhoun county, instructed to vote for Nick Davis and came here to take their seats.

Were they bought off, driven off, or how were they disposed of?

FAIR PLAY.

Gadsden Times.

May be the men who were ashamed to have the names of Burwell Williams and Scott (negroes) published as Delegates to the Selma Convention along side their names, could tell how it was.

The Radicals are evidently ashamed of their association with the negroes; but they need not be; for the negroes compose the more respectable part of their party in this State, both in numbers and the estimation of the white people, and the negroes are simply fools for allowing themselves to be crowded out this way by a few pig headed scoundrels and carpet-baggers. But for their votes, there would be no Radical party in the State worth mentioning, and they are entitled to a fair showing in all Radical Conventions.

Judge Lemuel J. Standifer is the Congressional man put on the track by the Radical convention of 10 at Gadsden.

We had not imagined there was so much humor in the 10. They are poking fun at us. Standifer is the softest case they could have picked up.

Henry Hoke, and Tom Clark (negroes) went from this county as Delegates to the Gadsden Convention, but were either persuaded or fooled out their seats in that Convention. Why? Because the white Radicals did not wish to sit in convention with them. We wish the negroes of this county to remember that the Radicals deliberately denied them a voice in the choice of a representative, and put up a man, Lemuel J. Standifer, who openly declares he is no "nigger man."

Standifer has been a standing aspirant for Congressional honors ever since the accident of war threw the mud to the top.

After the utter hopelessness of electing a Radical from this District has been demonstrated in the defeat of their strongest man, (Judge HARRISON) they put him out to satisfy him. He may be vain enough to suppose his election possible; but we will bet "forty acres and a mule" no other Radical in the District supports him.

Standifer, we understand, tells his Cherokee creditors (and their name is legion) that if elected he will soon be in possession to pay them up. How does he expect to make it? It takes a Congressman's entire salary to maintain him in style befitting his dignity and the honor of his constituents. In old times men never thought of serving in the capacity of legislator for any other consideration than the honor attached and from patriotic impulse. It is left for the Radicals to view such things in a pecuniary light.

Senator Sanford of Cherokee is evidently squalid. He was present at the Convention of 10 in Gadsden. When asked if he was a delegate he replied that he did not know. Said he, "they had little ole me in 'em" up there but they did "no" nothing." With the accompanying spirit which characterized the convention, however, he was voted in as a delegate. In fixing the representation they enquired of him the number of Radicals in Cherokee. He did not know, and referred them to Standifer. Stand-ifer has not been in a good humor since the nomination of the negro Rapier for Secretary of State. He bolted the Selma Convention when that nomination was made.

We learn reliably that the Patona Investigation has steadily refused for two weeks to allow one of the prisoners, against whom not the slightest evidence has been adduced, the privilege of visiting a wife who is lying dangerously sick two miles distant; and this in the face of every entreaty of friends, and the professing of an unlimited amount.

Dead indeed must be the man to every

From a speech at Huntsville delivered by Willard Warner, (carpet-bagger) we learn that he has extended, is extending and will still continue to extend the "olive branch." This settles the whole matter. Willard smiles, and all things are made "square."

We urge the good women of Calhoun to remind their husbands of their duty in regard to registration. The noble women of the South, bless them, held up the hands of the soldiers while fighting for their liberties. Let them not prove less noble in the present struggle against bad government and corruption in office.

We know that there is not a married woman in the county that will fail to send her vote through her husband to the polls in November.

We learn that old man Dale, perfectly blind, is already making all preparations to have himself hauled to town, on the day of election, that he, to use his own words, "may vote once more, if it is the last." Other old men, (one almost a hundred) some of whom have not voted for years, declare their intention to come out and contribute a vote to Democracy and Reform, in November.

How deeply stirred must be the great heart of the people, when such old men as these, with vastly more interest in hereafter than here, muster strength to strike a last blow at Radical corruption.

They wish to leave the legacy of God

Government to their grand-children, God bless them!

They are no less noble than our Revolutionary Fathers.

With such examples as these, is there, can there be a single man in the county who will fail to cast his vote on the day of election?

We put at the head of our columns, this week, the name of Capt. B. I. Harrison, for member of the Board of Education, for the 5th Congressional District; and we trust that when the District Executive Committee meet to put forth a candidate, he will receive the nomination. He is fitted by age, education and manner for the position. A teacher by profession, he would well understand the character of legislation necessary to advance the Educational interests of the State. No better selection for the position could be made, should the committee hunt the State from end to end. If put up, he will do the State ticket great good in the District; for he is both an orator and most logical and convincing speaker.

Court week will be a good time for our delinquent subscribers to come forward and pay what they owe us. We are needing the money, and hope they will no longer neglect the performance of so clear a duty.

A squad of Federal soldiers under command of a captain came into town on Tuesday. They remained but a short time.

Our Post Office.—Hoping that cause for complaint would pass away the matter in some way be explained to us, we have heretofore refrained from making any mention of the loud complaints made against our post office, not only by those in our immediate midst, but from points abroad. The Gadsden Times week before last, mentioned that among repeated occurrences of the same sort, one mail bag by way of Jacksonville contained ten letters which had been broken open. The loss of money has become so common by mail that no man can be found now so confident as to send a letter containing greenbacks. Our citizens complain of the loss of money and letters both going from and coming to Jacksonville; while others complain of having their letters delivered with the evident marks that they had been tampered with. Letters have been found on the streets which should have been delivered and never reached the parties addressed save by accident. The complaint is general and loud-mouthed. He

To the People of Alabama.

We presume we do not err in assuming that the Convention of the Democratic and Conservative party of the State, designed, in making its nominations, to present candidates who would be brought into the canvass, could be brought which could not be fully and satisfactorily refuted. The charge recently made against one of our nominees, Mr. J. F. Grant, involving an abuse and perversion of the State fund of $100,000, may in some respects be exaggerated and unfounded; but the explanation made by him, as to the receipt of fifteen hundred dollars as a fee for the collection of a portion of the fund referred to, is unsatisfactory.

We have had an interview with Mr. Mc-Goey, and after hearing from his own lips substantially the same explanation which he has since given through the public press, we are advised, after due consideration, that he has declined to run for the office of Treasurer, and under these circumstances, influenced alone by a sense of duty to the party, and satisfied that its best interests will be promoted by the continuance of Mr.

McGoey as the nominee of the party for the responsible position of State Treasurer, we recommend that his name be withdrawn, and that in its place be substituted that of J. F. GRANT, of Calhoun county, who, as we are advised, is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, and who, upon no personal charges being made, and who received in the canvass a large vote, is entitled to the convention the next highest vote to its nominee.

In conclusion, we would state, that the action of the committee, in recommending the withdrawal of Mr. McGoey, has been taken after full deliberation and consultation, not only among themselves, but with other gentlemen of the party whose opinion is entitled to every respect, and with special reference to the fact that it is now too late to assemble a convention to make another nomination; and that the course we have adopted based upon the conviction, is only that the present nominee is an able and capable man, and that the Democratic and Conservative party of the State

platform:

1. That we stand ready to obey the constitution of the United States and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, and the consti-

GOV. SMITH.

The Republican candidate for Government opened the canvass in a speech at Andalusia, in which he says it is the duty of the voters to investigate the antecedents and character of the candidates, before casting their votes.

We agree with him; and being familiar with his political "antecedents and character," we give our readers an outline of his Excellency's votes and political associations in the past. He is now a about forty-four years of age, and has voted in Randolph from 1847 to 1862, when he went North and remained until after the surrender.

In the State and Congressional elections of 1847, he voted for the Democratic candidates.

In 1848, he voted for Gen. Cass, for President.

In 1849, he voted the Democratic ticket in the Congressional and State elections.

In 1851, the canvass was a very exciting one; especially between Samuel P.

Rice and Alexander White for Congress.

Gov. Smith voted and worked actively for Rice.

The Democratic party held a Convention at Montgomery, January 19, 1852, to reorganize the party. Gov. Smith was a delegate and voted for the platform then adopted. He also supported Mr.

Pierce for President, in the same year.

In 1853, he voted for John A. Winston for Governor, James F. Dowdell, for Congress, and the nominees of his party for the Legislature and County officers. He was then among the working men of the party with which he acted.

In 1855, he was the nominee of the
